SMOOT TELLS PRESIDENT

President Harding was informed yesterday by Senator Reed Smoot of Utah that the concentrated Republican drive in Ohio, Massachusetts, and other normally Republican States must be extended into the West. .

Many leading Republican Senators are up for re-election in Western States, and in some instances face severe opposition, Senator Smoot said.

Senator Johnson in California and Poindexter in Washington, are practically conceded re-election, but Senators-elect Lynn Frazier in North Dakota, Mondell in Wyoming, Riddick in Montana, and Howell in Nebraska, have real contests on their hands,

In addition, the entire Western membership of the House this year is up for re-election, and Senator Smoot predicted a falling off in the huge Republican majority in the lower body unless the Republican National and Congressional committees extend their operations in the West.
